

ARTICLE III PLANNING AUTHORITY

Section 1. Membership

Multnomah County's deadly physical force planning authority shall consist of the following members:

- The Multnomah County District Attorney or designee;
- The Multnomah County Sheriff or designee;
- A nonmanagement police officer selected by the district attorney and sheriff from among candidates nominated by the unions representing police officers within the county.
- A police chief selected by the police chiefs within the county;
- A representative of the public selected by the district attorney and sheriff. The person selected under this paragraph may not be employed by a law enforcement agency.
- A representative of the Oregon State Police selected by the Superintendent of State Police.

Multnomah County's 2007-2008 deadly physical force planning authority members are:

- Don Rees, Senior Deputy District Attorney – District Attorney designee; co-chair
- Lt. Bruce McCain – Multnomah County Sheriff designee; co-chair
- Robert King, Portland Police Bureau – nonmanagement police officer
- Chief Phillip Klahn, Port of Portland Police Department – police chief
- Sam Sachs – public representative
- Lt. Richard Evans – Oregon State Police representative

Section 2. Release of Nonmanagement Police Officer

The law enforcement agency that employs the nonmanagement police officer selected by the district attorney and sheriff shall release the officer from other duties for at least 16 hours per year to enable the officer to serve on the planning authority. The agency shall compensate the officer at the officer's regular hourly wage while the officer is engaged in planning authority activities.

Section 3. Plan Development

(1) The planning authority shall develop a plan consisting of the following:

(a) An element dealing with education, outreach and training regarding the use of deadly physical force for police officers, attorneys employed by state or local government within the county and members of the community.

(b) An element dealing with the immediate aftermath of an incident in which a police officer used deadly physical force.

(c) An element dealing with the investigation of an incident in which a police officer used deadly physical force.
