

FY 2018 - 2019 VAWA COMPETITIVE GRANT PROGRAM SUMMARY AWARD PERIOD: JANUARY 1, 2018 – DECEMBER 31, 2019

LAW ENFORCEMENT ALLOCATION CATEGORY

County	Agency	Contact	Purpose
Harney County	Legal Aid Services of Oregon	Aleta Doerr Director of Administration Portland, OR 97204	Funds will be used by the Legal Aid Services of Oregon (LASO), a non-profit law firm, and the LASO's Native American Program (NAPOLS) that provides free legal services to Indian tribes, individuals, and groups in Oregon, to benefit the Burns Paiute Tribe law enforcement. Specifically, LASO will work with the Tribal Council, Chief Judge, Court Clerk, Police Chief, Prosecutor and DVSA Program Coordinator for a team approach to strengthen tribal laws and policies to enhance the investigation of violent crimes against women. Additionally, training law enforcement along with other key stakeholders that includes neighboring jurisdictions to more effectively respond to domestic and sexual violence, stalking and teen dating violence, hold offenders accountable, promote victim safety and understand criminal jurisdictional issues. Neighboring jurisdictions include Harney County Sheriff's Department along with the Burns and Hines Police Departments. Discretionary grant funds will also support the development of tribal court forms for protection order petitions and orders; training staff to assist survivors with the orders to ensure that other jurisdictions recognize Full Faith &amp; Credit enforcement of foreign orders; and develop a referral program to connect survivors with attorneys. Funds support a 1 FTE Program Director, contractual services, 10% de Minimis indirect cost rate. Purpose Area (s): 6 and 14. $188,136.00
Marion & Polk Counties	Salem Police Department	Emily Collins, Domestic Violence Response Team Coordinator Salem, OR 97301 Website: www.cityofsalem.net	Funds will be used by Salem Police Department's Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT) to assist victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in the City of Salem at the time of police contact and offender arrest. The goal is to provide victims immediate intervention, heighten victim safety, encourage offender accountability, and reduce on-going violence in the relationship. DVRT offers 24-hour on-scene response to victims by primary or back-up advocates who provide victims with information on victim's rights, offender arrest/release procedures, the Criminal Justice System, crisis intervention, safety planning, problem solving, offer emotional support and provide a link to local resources. The target output in FY 18-19 is to reach 900 victims on-scene, or by phone when scene circumstances are such that it would be a risk to advocate safety. It is anticipated that an additional 230 victims will be served in an outreach manner, including 30 immigrant victims. The outcome is to provide 100% of victims served with at least one strategy to enhance safety planning, to have a prosecution rate of 75% or higher, and to make successful follow-up contact in at least 50% of our cases. DVRT has an MOU with advocates from the Marion and Polk County District Attorney's Victim Assistance Division and with the Center for Hope and Safety in Marion County. A total match amount of $70,000.00 includes a .09 FTE DVRT Coordinator. Funds support a .91 FTE Domestic Violence Response Team Coordinator. Purpose Area(s): 5 &amp;10. $210,000.00

LAW ENFORCEMENT ALLOCATION CATEGORY

County	Agency	Contact	Purpose
Washington County	City of Hillsboro	Sharon Brown, Police Domestic Violence Program Coordinator Hillsboro, OR 97123 Website: www.hillsboro-oregon.gov/police	Funds will be used to expand law enforcement response and enhance services to 600 victims/survivors of domestic violence and intimate partner sexual assault through funding a 1 and .50 FTE Domestic Violence Program Assistants on the Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT). Evidence-based risk assessment tools that identify relationships with a high risk of lethality will be used to help prioritize the level of follow-up investigation for 400 victims of domestic violence, stalking, teen dating violence crime. The assistants will work with the DVRT, providing 24-hour response to crime scenes involving DV/IPSA arrests. Hillsboro Police Department (HPD) has developed MOUs with the local community based domestic and sexual violence programs for referrals from our emergency on-scene contacts to on-going services for victims/survivors, and Oregon Law Center for referrals where civil legal assistance could be helpful in clarifying or modifying protection orders to aid in their enforcement. DVP Assistants will assist with protection order enforcement through identification of cases referred to OLC with victim/survivor consent, in cases where no identifiable crime has been committed. A total of 100 law enforcement officers will receive training to improve effective response through the criminal process. A total of $73,657 match will also be utilized which includes 3,050 volunteer hours for on call response with law enforcement officers to DV/SA investigations 24 hours a day. A portion of the VAWA award is dedicated to SA with $21,985 sexual assault set aside. Purpose areas: 2, 11, and 12  $219,855
Washington & Multnomah Counties	Sexual Assault Resource Center	Edith Molina, Interim Executive Director Beaverton, OR 97002 Website: www.sarcOregon.org	The project continues to support VAWA funded initiatives established two years ago that increase access to trauma-informed systems, protective options, and case management services for sexual assault survivors as well as increasing and integrating cultural support services within the agency. This project supports the Beaverton Police Department’s implementation of a modified version of the You Have Options Program (YHOP), supports the coordination of services for the Sexual Abuse Protective Order (SAPO), and increasing accessibility for immigrants, persons with limited English proficiency and communities of color. This project will partner with the Domestic Violence Resource Center to ensure survivors are aware of access to legal advice and representation and to ensure Latina/o survivors have access to culturally specific case management assistance. This project formally partners with the Beaverton Police Department and A Safe Place for Youth. The project will seek partnerships with at least two additional Washington County Police Departments. Approximately 640 survivors of sexual assault will be served through this project (300 survivors through in-person crisis response services, 300 from community based and self-referral supported through case management and 40 survivors referred from correctional facilities. Grant funds support a 1 FTE Case Manager/SAPO Coordinator training staff and volunteers as well as contact with law enforcement, a .75 FTE Crisis Response Coordinator that is dedicated to response services involving law enforcement, and a .5FTE LatinX Case Manager. This VAWA grant is 100% focused on sexual assault. Purpose Area(s): 1,5, and 17  $238,548

PROSECUTION ALLOCATION CATEGORY

County	Agency	Contact	Purpose
Jackson	Jackson County District Attorney's Office	Diana Hamilton, Victim Assistance Program Director Medford, OR 97501	The Jackson County District Attorney's Office will use STOP dollars to fund a 1 FTE Victim Assistant who will work with volunteers. The assistant will provide direct services to victims of domestic violence in rural Jackson County as well as victims of sexual assault throughout the county by interacting with victims about the criminal justice system, attending trials and hearings with victims, and referring them to community and state wide services. STOP funds will also help reduce barriers to services for rural residence in Jackson County. A contractual .50 FTE Advocate from Community Works will assist 108 victims seeking stalking orders, 292 victims of domestic violence seeking FAPA restraining orders and 18 victims of sexual assault. The STOP grant project will allow the Jackson County District Attorney's Office, in collaboration with CW to reach out to its communities and eliminate barriers to participation in the criminal justice process by meeting with victims in their own communities and at rural law enforcement agencies. The program is projected to serve at least 600 victims of domestic violence, stalking and violation of protective orders as well as 60 victims of sexual assault. A match of $64,039.12 will be utilized (1,272 volunteer hours includes sending out initial paperwork, final judgments, escorting victims to court, answering phones and assisting the victim assistant; and a .05 FTE Victim Assistant). A portion of the VAWA award is dedicated to SA with $19,211.74 sexual assault set aside. Purpose Area(s): 5 and 16 $192,117.35
Jefferson	Jefferson County District Attorney's Office	Twila Rosenberg, Victim Assistance Program Director Madras, OR 97741 Website:	Funds will be used to support a specialized prosecution unit that will handle cases of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking in order to increase the safety of victims and hold offenders accountable for their crimes. This will be accomplished through employing a 1.0 FTE Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Prosecutor to prosecute 300 cases with the outcome of pleading 75% of cases to the highest charge as part of plea negotiations and will also train local law enforcement on best practice response; employ a .11 FTE Bilingual Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Victim Assistance Advocate who will provide culturally competent services to increase the long term safety of 72 underserved domestic victims, coordinate cases with the Prosecutor; and directly refer victims to the contractual .10 FTE Bilingual Saving Grace Victim Advocate providing danger assessments and safety planning services to victims in criminal cases. An after-hours crisis response program will also be provided as match on this grant (2703 volunteer hours or $4,478.76). Coordination with the Sheriff's Office, Madras Police Department, Adult Community Corrections, Juvenile Community Justice, and St. Charles Madras as community partners will take place. Approximately 300 underserved domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking victims will be served by the project. This project will match $ 76,847.00. A portion of the VAWA award is dedicated to SA with $11,526 sexual assault set aside. Purpose Area(s): 1, 2, 5, 10, &amp; 11. $230,541.00

PROSECUTION ALLOCATION CATEGORY

Lane	Lane County District Attorney's Office	Patricia W. Perlow, District Attorney Eugene, OR 97401 Website: http://www.lanecounty.org/Departments/DA/VictimServices	The Lane County DA Domestic Violence and Campus Sexual Assault Prosecution Project aims to increase safety of and advocacy for 550 victims of domestic violence and 35 sexual assault victims including those in rural Lane County and UO Students as well as increasing successful prosecution of DV and SA, and strengthening the criminal justice system's response to violence against women. Sexual Assault direct services will be provided by the Campus Sexual Assault Team (including; UOPD, EPD, UO Victim Advocate, and the .20 FTE VAWA funded SA Assistant District Attorney (ADA)). A VAWA funded .63 FTE DV Investigator and SA ADA along with a .27 FTE DV Assistant District Attorney as match will participate in the Coordinated Community Response Training Team (SA/DV) to train all county police agencies in appropriate handling of domestic violence and sexual assault cases and inform other agencies about their roles in a Coordinated Community Response to DV and sexual assault. The SA ADA will participate in the Campus Sexual Assault Training Team. All Team members will be trained and will serve as trainers to deliver trauma-informed training on sexual assault, prevention and safety, victims' rights, reporting, investigation, support, and prosecution. Trainers will present to prosecutors, law enforcement, and other public safety partners as well as students, resident halls, student leaders, Residence Assistants, Greek Life Organizations, and others on the UO Campus. A $80,276.24 match is included. A portion of the VAWA award is dedicated to SA with $89,411.68 sexual assault set aside. Purpose Area(s): 1, 2, 3, &amp;16. $240,828.24
Marion	Marion County District Attorney's Office	Kim Larson, Director Victim Assistance Program Salem, OR 97309 Website: http://www.co.marion.or.us/DA/victimassistance/	This project provides ongoing direct services to 1,798 victims of domestic violence, including stalking and sexual assault that occurs within an intimate partner relationship. Serving all victims of domestic violence includes serving many underserved, marginalized and/or oppressed communities or members of tribal nations. These services are provided both within the criminal justice process as well as the juvenile dependency process and extend into the civil process with restraining orders. This grant funds a .75 FTE Family Violence Program Coordinator (FVPC) along with .25 FTE in matching funds that provides direct services and manages volunteers. It also funds a .30 FTE Family Violence System Response Coordinator (FVSRC) along with .08 FTE in matching funds that provide services within the criminal justice process and the juvenile dependency process when the victim has co-occurring cases. The project's overall purpose is two-fold: (1) to enhance victim safety and provide information and connection with resources that empowers victims to make safe and informed; and (2) to proactively help the involved systems be more responsive to victim needs. This is accomplished by collaborating with partners (Center for Hope and Safety, Salem Police Department DV Response Team, Parole and Probation victim services and DHS); and by working to increase the number of specially-trained, volunteer victim assistants. There is $73,066.04 in matching funds. Purpose Area(s): 5 $219,198.14

PROSECUTION AND LAW ENFORCEMENT ALLOCATION CATEGORY

County	Agency	Contact	Purpose
Statewide	Attorney General's Sexual Assault Task Force	Michele Roland-Schwartz Executive Director Keizer, OR 97303 Website: http://oregonsatf.org/	A statewide training project focused on Sexual Assault Law Enforcement and Prosecutor Training. The trainings will improve Oregon's capacity to effectively respond to, investigate, and prosecute sexual assault crimes, and to improve the criminal justice system's ability to appropriately respond to victims of sexual assault. Through partnership with the Commission on Elder Abuse & Neglect (CEANS), Oregon District Attorney Association (ODAA), Department of Safety Standards and Training (DPSST), Oregon State Sheriff's Association (OSSA) and SATF member partners on the Criminal Justice Subcommittee and up to 12 SATI Law Enforcement and Prosecutor Instructors, SATI will provide 4 joint prosecutor and law enforcement trainings in Pendleton, Madras, Salem and Roseburg (2.5 days each); 3 one-day joint prosecutor and law enforcement trainings on the intersection of sexual assault, dementia and other cognitive degenerative diseases. Additional individual technical assistance will be available to all participants. A total of 130 Law enforcement and 74 prosecutors will each complete between 20-28 hours of training. Funds will support a .21 FTE Program Specialist &amp; a .54 FTE Training Coordinator ; along with $39,886 to subcontract with several trainers to present at each training. This VAWA Grant is 100% focused on sexual assault. Purpose Area(s): 1, 9 & 16 $203,240

COURTS ALLOCATION CATEGORY (Non-Competitive)

County	Agency	Contact	Purpose
Statewide	Oregon Judicial Department	Leola McKenzie, JCPD Salem, OR 97301 Website: http://courts.oregon.gov/ojd/pages/index.aspx	OJD will use court VAWA funds to continue to fund the .5 FTE VAWA staff counsel position and .06 FTE Management Assistant . VAWA staff counsel will remain the point of contact within OJD for trial court judges and staff and other state agencies, and community stakeholders. VAWA staff counsel will remain OJD's liaison on multidisciplinary committees related to VAWA statutory purpose areas and will maintain and develop forms and instructions for use by victims in obtaining protective orders. VAWA staff counsel will collaborate with other stakeholders to develop legal memoranda, bench guides, protocols, trainings and educational materials for judges and court staff. The OJD will use VAWA grant funds for regional trainings for judges and court staff and to send judges to educational programs sponsored by the National Judicial Institute on Domestic Violence, the National Council of Juvenile & Family Court Judges, and the U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women. Funds will also be used to update translations of forms for protective orders for non-English speaking populations, primarily in Spanish, Russian, Vietnamese, and Korean. Staff counsel will continue to work with local courts to implement firearm surrender protocols for domestic violence offenders. Purpose Area(s): 1,2,3,7,9,10,14,19 $206,757