CVSSD Mass Violence Incident Response Team| Required and Recommended Training

The following trainings are required for all CVSSD MVI Response Team members:

- Death Notification: We Regret to Inform You (Penn State and FBI)
- Incident Command System: FEMA's Emergency Management Institute

    o ICS-100: Introduction to the Incident Command System o ICS-200: ICS for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents o IS-700: National Incident Management System, An Introduction o IS-800: National Response Framework, An Introduction
- Psychological First Aid: National Child Traumatic Stress Network

The following trainings are recommended for all CVSSD MVI Response Team members:

- Incident Command System: FEMA's Emergency Management Institute

    o ICS-300: Intermediate ICS for Expanding Incidents o ICS-400: Advanced ICS for Command and General Staff o IS-701: NIMS Multiagency Coordination System (MACS) o IS-702: NIMS Publication Information Systems o IS-703: NIMS Resource ManagementG-402 Incident Command System (ICS) Overview for Executives/Senior Officials o G-775: Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Management and Operations o IS-42: Social Media in Emergency Management o IS-405: Overview of Mass Care/Emergency Assistance o IS-505: Religious and Cultural Literacy in Disaster
- Stress and Resilience Online Course ($30): Headington Institute
- "Helping Children Cope with Disaster": Headington Institute
- "Questions to Ask Yourself Before Your Next Deployment": Headington Institute
- "Four Ways to Rebuild Responder Resilience": Headington Institute