[insert variation of Point to Your Language Card with audio/written versions available for each language]

This notice can be provided to you in writing in English, translated into another language, or we can read it to you in English, or play a recording of it in any other language. Do you want this information translated, or to listen to this information in any language?

Notice:

You have the right not to share information about your nationality, citizenship, or immigration status with me or any law enforcement officer or jail staff. If you do disclose this information to us, it could be used against you in civil or criminal immigration enforcement, including your removal from the United States.

If you are not a United States citizen, you may notify your country's consulate officers here in the United States of your arrest or detention. You can ask me to make this notification. You can also choose to make this notification yourself so that you can keep your citizenship information private. You do not have to make this decision now. You or jail staff can notify your consulate at any time, now or later.

A consulate officer may be able to help you obtain legal representation and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other services.

Do you want us to notify your consular office?
