Subject: Procedures for Responding to Complaints about the Oregon Department of Justice, Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division and the programs that receive Oregon Department of Justice, Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division funding

Effective Date: January 2019

I. Purpose

The Oregon Department of Justice, Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division (DOJ/CVSSD), receives federal financial assistance and serves as the State Administering Agency (SAA) for the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) funds and the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) funds. DOJ/CVSSD also administers state funding through the Child Abuse Multidisciplinary Intervention Fund, the Criminal Fines Account, and the Oregon Domestic and Sexual Violence Services Fund. As a funding recipient and administrator, DOJ/CVSSD has a responsibility to ensure victims and survivors are appropriately served and have recourse to complain if concerns arise.

This policy establishes written procedures for DOJ/CVSSD employees to follow when they receive a complaint about DOJ/ CVSSD or about a DOJ/CVSSD subrecipient implementing funding administered by the SAA.

Please Note:

Complaints alleging employment discrimination by DOJ/CVSSD are covered by Oregon Department of Justice Policy 3-21.

Complaints alleging discrimination by DOJ/CVSSD or by a subrecipient are covered by the Procedures for Responding to Discrimination Complaints from Clients, Customers, Program Participants, or Consumers of the Oregon Department of Justice, Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division and the Oregon Department of Justice, Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division Subrecipients.

II. Policy

In using and administering state and federal grant funds, DOJ/CVSSD must have procedures in place to respond to complaints from clients, customers, program participants, or consumers of DOJ/CVSSD or of a subrecipient. At a minimum, DOJ/CVSSD will follow the complaint process detailed herein and will investigate the complaint to evaluate the alleged behavior. If the complaint is in reference to a subrecipient, DOJ/CVSSD will evaluate the complaint to determine if there has been a violation of a program's grant agreement. If a program is found in violation of a grant agreement provision, DOJ/CVSSD will work with the program to take corrective action to remedy the violation.

Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division
Every victim, every crime, every right, every time.

If a complaint is in reference to an employee of DOJ/CVSSD, the complaint will be forwarded to the appropriate supervisor to investigate and address within applicable personnel rules and procedures.

Filing a Complaint About an Oregon Victim Services Program

The Oregon Department of Justice Crime Victim and Survivor Services Division (CVSSD) funds many victim services programs to support and serve crime victims and survivors in Oregon. CVSSD and these victim services programs want the best for victims and survivors.

If you wish to file a complaint about a victim services program, we encourage you to start by contacting that program directly and following their complaint process, but you are not required to work with the program that you have a complaint about. To find a program's contact information and to learn about their complaint process, look on the program's website or contact CVSSD for more information about that program.

For support, you can talk with the CVSSD Complaint Coordinator (Phone: 503-378-5348). We can work with you to help resolve problems, even if you do not file a formal complaint.

CVSSD can only act on complaints about grant agreement violations. These might be problems like discrimination or a program not providing appropriate services. We cannot act on workplace issues, like complaints about job scheduling, workplace conflicts, or wages and benefits.

To File a Formal Complaint

1. Fill out this complaint form in as much detail as you want to or can. You must sign the form. CVSSD cannot act on unsigned complaints.
2. Complete and sign 2 release of information forms that are included in this packet. The forms allow us to release information to the victim services program and to receive information from them. Both release forms are necessary. Some programs' confidentiality requirements do not allow them to talk with CVSSD without a signed release from you.

When we receive your complaint, we look into it. We share the information you have given us with the victim services program. We ask the program to share relevant information they have about your complaint with us. If the program receives victim services funds administered by another agency, we may work with the funding agency to look into the complaint.

There may be complaints that we can do nothing about. Even if this is the case, we will contact you to discuss your concerns. As soon as possible, CVSSD will tell you and the victim services program, in writing, about the outcome of your complaint.
