

Transcript of verbal recommendation unanimously adopted by the Sunshine Committee at its September 13, 2023 meeting and relating to its review of exemptions pertaining to law enforcement misconduct complaints and investigations:

“The Sunshine Committee would like to see greater transparency in the professional oversight of law enforcement officers starting at the agency level in order to increase public confidence in the regulation of law enforcement.”

Recorded version available on YouTube at timestamp. 1:03:40.