

(7) “Intentionally” or “with intent,” when used with respect to misconduct described by a rule ~~a result or to conduct described by a statute defining an offense~~, means that a person acts with a conscious objective to cause the result or to engage in the conduct so described.

(8) “Knowingly” or “with knowledge,” when used with respect to misconduct or to a circumstance described by a rule ~~statute defining an offense~~, means that a person acts with an awareness that the conduct of the person is of a nature so described or that a circumstance so described exists.

(9) “Recklessly,” when used with respect to a result or to a circumstance described by a rule ~~statute defining an offense~~, means that a person is aware of and consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the result will occur or that the circumstance exists. The risk must be of such nature and degree that disregard thereof constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable person would observe in the situation.
