Klamath Basin Behavioral Health (KBBH) complaint follow-up
The group chairs have provided the complainant with the KBBH Client Handbook. They communicated to the complainant the general limitations of the AC. Group representatives will meet with Klamath County supervisory groups concerned to follow up.

Criminal Justice Factors and OARs, Division 87
The AC has decided the following areas of concern will be categorized as areas providers shall ensure:

Standard Referral Packet (from Criminal Justice Agencies)
Referrals must include:

- Current PSC-R score (Public Safety Checklist - Revised)
- Current needs assessment and target domains
- Domestic violence specific assessment used by the jurisdiction (if available)
- Judgment, police report, and relevant victim information (if available)

Provider Intake Requirement
Programs shall not begin treatment, including intake, orientation, or group assignment, until the full referral packet and all required assessments are received.

Provider Responsibilities
Once the provider receives the complete assessment packet, the provider must:

- Align Treatment Targets with Risk/Needs Profile
- Use the criminogenic-needs assessment to set individualized treatment targets identified for the client

They noted that regarding criminogenic needs, Bonta and Andrews (2023) identified eight central risk/needs factors, seven of which are criminogenic needs: 1) history of antisocial behavior; 2) antisocial personality pattern; 3) antisocial cognition; 4) antisocial associates; 5) problematic family/marital circumstances; 6) issues at school/work; 7) low involvement/satisfaction in leisurely activities; and 8) substance abuse.

Domestic Violence Risk & Needs Assessment (DVRNA) Pilot Subcommittee
The group decided there is not currently the time capacity to handle this work. Therefore, the project will not move forward now.

This topic was tabled until the October meeting.
